

SOCIETY

MISS ALINE JENNINGS, of Richmond, who has been for the past week with her sister, Mrs. C. Lee Morrison, in Buffalo, N. Y., has been having a charming time socially during her stay there.

A number of luncheons, also rides and informal suppers have been given for her, and early in the week she went with a party to Niagara Falls.

Mr. Marshall, of Buffalo, brother of Mrs. Baskerville, of this city, gave a beautiful supper at the Park Country Club, of Buffalo, in her honor. Covers were laid for six. Mrs. C. Lee Morrison, formerly Miss Emily Jennings, of Richmond, chaperoning the party.

Miss Jennings will leave Buffalo tomorrow for Toronto, Canada. She will be away from Richmond for about a week longer.

Mr. Beltrac's Engagement.

The date for the wedding of Richard P. Beltrac, son of the late Colonel Richard P. Beltrac, of this city, to Miss Camille Penrose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Biddle Penrose, of New Orleans, has not yet been set, but it is rumored that the wedding will take

Are You Feeding Your Teething Child Food That Gives It Health and Strength?

Your baby needs every help and attention these hot days. Teething days require extra care and thoughtfulness on your part. Give the little one poorly prepared and non-nutritious foods that are hard to digest, and you poison its system and endanger its life.

Christian's Sterilized Pepsin Wafers

Are made of clean whole wheat flour, and have pepsin added to aid the little stomach in its work of digestion. If you have found it hard to regulate your child's bowels, you will find these Wafers ideal. Cure indigestion by removing the cause. Good for invalids and the convalescent. For sale by your grocer. Recommended by your physician.

place in the early fall. The announcement of Mr. Beltrac's engagement and approaching marriage is perhaps the most interesting of the month to Richmond, as Richmond was for many years Mr. Beltrac's home city.

He is the son of Mrs. W. J. Leake, of 515 Park Avenue, and a brother of Mrs. Jordan Leake, Mrs. John P. Leary and Miss Mary Beltrac.

Before going to New Orleans, about a year ago, Mr. Beltrac did journalistic work in Baltimore for some time.

Sailed Yesterday.

Mrs. John Dunlop and Mrs. Charles Evelyn Smith sailed yesterday from New York for Europe on the Lapland, of the Hamburg-American Line.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon, of Savannah, will leave the White Sulphur Springs, where Mrs. Gordon has been with her mother, Mrs. Hunter McGuire, and sail for England to visit relatives. They expect to leave Virginia about August 1.

Former Virginia Girl at Home.

Mrs. Thomas H. Campbell, Jr., of Yazoo City, Miss., and Master Thomas H. Campbell III, and George Haw Campbell, arrived yesterday to visit Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Haw, at their home, "Dundee," in Hanover county.

Mrs. Campbell was quite popular as Miss Elizabeth Haw before her marriage, and she is being warmly welcomed by her many Virginia friends.

Guests of Mrs. McDaniel.

Mrs. J. B. Scarborough and Miss Dorothy Scarborough, of Baylor University, Waco, Texas, are enjoying a visit to Richmond as the guests of Rev. and Mrs. George W. McDaniel, of West Grace Street.

Miss Scarborough and Miss Daisy Winston are among the week-end guests from Richmond to Buckroe Beach.

Class-Ligan.

A marriage of much interest in many portions of Virginia, as well as in this city, took place in Washington on Monday at 1:30 P. M., when Miss Agatha Pearl Ligan became the wife of Bernard Washington Glass. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. B. McLaughlin, of Washington. W. A. Boatwright, of Richmond, was best man.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ligan, of 1009 Thirty-fifth Street. The groom is well known among business men of this city, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Glass, of 205 North Eighteenth Street. They will make their future home in the East end after their return from their bridal tour.

Flowers Sent by Daughters.

In remembrance of the fact that the late John Goode was an honorary member of Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the chapter sent a handsome floral design as a testimony of respect.

The design was placed on the casket at the funeral service held in Norfolk. The chapter received, through its president, a letter of thanks from Scottsville for a bunting flag sent the Daughters there.

Sunday Feature at Country Club.

A pleasant feature of the day at the Country Club for Young Women under the direction of the clubs and extension committee of the Woman's Christian Association will be a vespers held on the lawn at the club on Sunday evenings at 6 o'clock.

After the song service to-day Miss McCorkle will speak, and later a light supper will be served for those desiring to go directly from this service to church.

Richmond People at German.

The Alleghany Hotel was the scene of a beautiful German last Tuesday evening. The ballroom was decorated with evergreens, and made quite gay with college pennants and Japanese lanterns. The chaperons were Mrs. W. V. Mahoney, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Richards, of Boston.

The punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. W. A. Jones, of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Capham, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. P. P. Webster, of Goshen. The German was led by Mrs. Sherman Jones, of Louisville, Ky., with Andrew Cameron, of Cameron Hall.

Those dancing were Miss Helen Webster, of the Alleghany, with Henderson Liggett, of Staunton; Miss Isabel Webster, with Mr. Fogg, of Wilmington; Miss Ella Webster, with Mr. Woolin, of Staunton; Miss Gertrude Cooper, with Bob Burke, of Staunton; Miss McCall Jones, of Louisville, with Harry Jones, of Staunton; Miss May Cooper, with Harry Goodwin, of Staunton; Miss Foege, of Richmond, with Mr. Willis, of Staunton; Mrs. Guggenheimer, of Richmond, with George Christian, of Richmond; Mrs. Timberlake, of Richmond, with Dr. Springer, of Philadelphia; Miss Margaret Bell, of Staunton, with Mr. Hammett, of Bristol; Miss Myers of Washington, with Mr. Zimmer, of Los Angeles; Miss Jennie Burwell, of Richmond, with Lieutenant Walters, U. S. N.

The figures were unusually graceful, and the dancing was continued until 1:30, at which hour refreshments were served.

Bridge, tennis and fishing are the leading diversions for the guests at the Alleghany.

Those registered recently are Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Mrs. P. P. Webster, Miss Ella Webster, Miss Helen Webster, Miss Belle Webster, R. W. Burke, Staunton; Meyer Davis, Washington, D. C.; Charles Hughes, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. C. S. Meyers, Washington, D. C.; Miss Corinne Meyers, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. W. A. TRYING TO CORNER PLEASURE MARKET AT BLUE RIDGE

Days and Nights Filled With Pure Joy of Living at This Resort Bridge Proves Popular Pastime.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS, Va., July 17.—Mid-July finds a large and merry company of pleasure seekers at charming old Blue Ridge Springs, and all are "onto their jobs" of getting as much fun as possible out of the waking hours, and some are even "fudging" on the "wee sma" hours in their efforts to corner the pleasure market. All agree with Henry Van Dyke when he says:

"And best of all along the way, Friendship and mirth."

The two have always gone hand in hand at this merry old resort, and the season of 1909 is not bringing up the rear in that respect.

And the guests play bridge, too. Many excellent players have found their way here, but in Mrs. W. H. McAllister, of New York City; John Currie, of Richmond, and C. H. Sproule, of New Orleans. Blue Ridge Springs boasts of three of the best in the country. Mrs. McAllister shows a rare collection of sixty-five pins won in national whist congresses and bridge carnivals, and has the distinction of having beaten self-satisfied Boston in more than one encounter.

Mrs. H. W. Wickes, of New Orleans, and Mrs. D. P. Siles, of Roanoke, also have the reputation of being good players. Among the young women who play the game well are Miss Julia Todd, of Smithfield; Miss Amelia McAllister, of New York; and Misses Mary Sproule, of New Orleans. Dr. Alfred P. Upshur, of Richmond, the resident physician, also has a reputation of being a "winner" in the bridge world.

At a watermelon feast given by Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Brown,
